

Certificate of Completion

has successfully completed the

Risk Management Framework for Systems and Organizations Introductory Course Version 2.0

Updated August 2023

on

An overview of a methodology for organizational security and privacy risk management developed by the National Institute of Standards and Technology

The certificate only identifies that the course material was viewed and does not attest to any qualifications, knowledge, or skill level resulting from the completion of the course.